CHINESE JURY VIEWS SCENES OF SLAYINGS

Trial of Ten as Highbinders Resumed To-day With New Jurors.

How Chinese Highbinder murders are passed and executed was outlined today by Assistant District Attorney Michael J. Dwyer, in his opening address to the jury trying the case of Chinese who are charged with killing four of their fellow countrymen in Chinatown, Boston, on the night of August 2 last. Wary of Chinese, the jurists declared, charged with killing four of their fellow countrymen in Chinatown, Boston, on the night of August 2 last. Cymric, Arriving with Survivors of Burned Steamer, Reports By Wireless Tale of Awful Suffering.

AT SEA, ON BOARD STEAMER CYMRIC (by wireless via Halifax), Feb. 4.—Twenty four lives were blotted out in the destruction by fire of the British steamer St. Cathbert. The first officer of the Cymric and a gallant crew of volunteers which made three perilous trips to the burning steamer carried off Captain Lewis and thirty-six sailors.

Nine stowaways were in the hold of the vessel, which burned to the water's edge and then plunged beneath the frigid waves of the ocean. They died like rats in a trap.

The third officer and fourteen men, who tried to escape from the doomed vessel Sunday afternoon, were drowned, for their boat was engulfed by the waves running mountains high.

THE RECENT season had a terrible experience to report to their sailors when they had recovered so far as to be able to speak. They had been fighting the fire for two days in Sunday, and had the Cymric not been in sight when they did their struggles would seem have ceased, for they had given up hope of ever seeing land again.

The sailors and Captain Lewis were rescued by the Cymric, which arrived at Halifax on Monday morning. The Cymric was the only vessel to arrive at Halifax on Monday morning. The Cymric was the only vessel to arrive at Halifax on Monday morning.

Famous Pedestrian Will Lead His Second Host of Walkers From Edward Everett Square, Dorchester, at 4 o'clock To-morrow Afternoon.

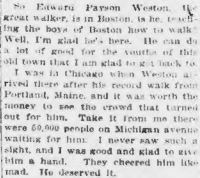

JOSEPH F. O'CONNELL.

Congressman O'Connell Comes From Washington to Talk to the Boys of the Weston Walking Club About Revolutionary Events in Dorchester District.

WESTON WALKERS PRAISED BY THE LATE JOHN L.

By JOHN L. SULLIVAN.

WHEN at 4 o'clock to-morrow afternoon Edward Payson Weston gives the signal to the band in Edward Everett square, Dorchester, he will undoubtedly lead the largest gathering of sturdy youngsters that ever assembled before for a walk through Boston streets.

The pace will be set not only for the day but for the little square every boy will soon feel a warm glow settling over his body. The pedestrian, who has made a record, that will probably never be equalled by a man of his age, will lead his young followers through Columbia road, Blue Hill and Taber avenues to the Dorchester High school in Colman square. It is a distance of less than four miles, a walk that will not tire any boy, but will send him home with an excellent appetite for supper.

POSTPONED FOR THE SCHOOLBOYS.

It was originally intended to have the walk start at 5:30, but that caused a protest. Young Israel Rotman, who lives at No. 9 Barton court, in the West End, put in an announcement with this statement for himself and his classmates:

"I have walked with you Saturday in that state. I have exactly what you told me. I rubbed myself down and took a bath, but on new underwear. I feel very comfortable. I am not sick at all. I would like to walk with you Wednesday, February 5, which starts at Edward Everett square at 3:30. I can't come because I get out of school at 3:30. But if you can help me I will surely be glad to go. You can send a note to my teacher, Mr. Miller, Phillips school."

BRISK WALKING WILL DO IT.

In the face of an arrangement like this from one of the boys had been followed Mr. Weston in the rain and the ankle deep slush from Arlington street to the Washington in Cambridge on Saturday, something had to be done. It was decided that the walk should start at 4 o'clock, and the school boys would be asked to start at 5 o'clock. If any of the boys did not get to the start on time for the first march to school the school was changed to 4 o'clock.

WILL MEET THE SCHOOL CAPTAINS.

Now the boys in Dorchester schools, in South Boston schools, in Roxbury and other parts of the city can get together and organize their school walking parties. Mr. Weston will only be too glad to receive the captains of the several companies at Edward Everett square before the start and give them prominent places in the line.

Head Master Charles J. Landon of the Dorchester high school has promised to be on hand to welcome Mr. Weston and his large following. Mr. Landon is much impressed with the physical and intellectual benefits which are to be derived from the walk with the pedestrian.

CONGRESSMAN'S TALK ON THE REVOLUTION.

Congressman O'Connell, following out the plan of having something interesting in the line of historical knowledge to impart to the boys, will talk on the revolution. Arrive of Revolutionary times which took place in the district. Ever walker will want to hear the Congressman's address. He is coming on from Washington, where he is in attendance on important committee hearings, for the sole purpose of talking to the boys of the Weston Walking Club.

There will probably be others there, too, who will be warmly welcomed by the members of the club. Head Mr. Weston's talk to-day and follow on his advice to-morrow. Then report to him at 4 o'clock to-morrow afternoon at Edward Everett square and be prepared for the most interesting walk you ever had.

PEOPLE DO NOT WALK MUCH AS THEY SHOULD

By FRANCIS D. DONOGHUE, M. D.

In these days of rapid transit the feet are not used as much as they should be. People do not walk as much as they should. Walking is important to the health.

Two things are involved in the walk: the first is the exercise of the muscles, and the second is the exercise of the lungs. The first is the exercise of the muscles, and the second is the exercise of the lungs.

It is very evident that investors appreciate the opportunity to buy this stock at a price so remarkably low as much lower, in fact, that I believe it will be within a very few days upon the Boston Stock Exchange. It is very evident that the time will be very short before the strictly limited allotment will be fully subscribed.

This being the case, investors who have funds at their disposal which they wish to place in a stock that will be expected to speedily advance in price are urged not to delay in sending me their subscriptions. Orders will be filled in the order of their receipt at my office, and I reserve the right to withdraw this offer at any time, without notice. It will be withdrawn as soon as 100,000 shares of the stock have been distributed, whereupon Bingham Central Standard will be listed on the Boston Curb. At a later and not far distant date, following the present one, other Newhouse properties, I am informed it will be listed upon the Boston Stock Exchange.

The offer which I make to investors is a sufficiently remarkable one to attract immediate attention. It is a limited one by the volume of the allotment—100,000 shares—of treasury stock of the Bingham Central Standard Company, at a par value of $5 per share, at $1.50 per share. Orders will be received for the stock in lots of 50 shares or more.

There is no risk in the Union the fruits of whose mines show as large a percentage of total production as those of Utah. And of all the mining camps of Utah there is none more famous—and just so-called the Bingham Camp.

Here are located the famous Boston Consolidated, Utah Consolidated and Utah Copper Company's properties, which have become famous as producers and distributors of silver under the development of Samuel Newhouse.

Here also are located the mines of the Bingham Central Standard Company and the Bingham Central Mining Company, the two companies of which the Bingham Central Standard is the holding company. The Bingham Central Standard Company covers over 500 acres and its value may be judged by the neighboring and more fully developed properties.

They are bounded on the west by the properties of the Bingham & New Haven Copper & Gold Mining Company and the Utah Consolidated Mining Company, on the north by the Bingham Central Standard Company, on the east by the United States Mining Company and the East Chance group. The south-east corner of the property is the only one that is not directly connected with well-developed and producing mines.

YARMOUTH CAN BE BOUGHT OFF MORRIS BETTER SAYS DOCTOR

LONDON, Feb. 1. The Earl of Yarmouth has decided not to resist the suit brought by his wife, formerly Miss Alice Fane of Pittsburg, for annulment of their marriage, provided the divorce will settle his enormous financial settlement in the hands of the wife.

The legal advisers of the Earl and Countess are discussing the question of such a settlement, but it is understood that the latter is disposed to accept her husband's proposals, which will limit his demands to a reasonable amount.

The beginning of the trial is set for to-morrow.

STEAMER DELAYED PUTS IN FOR COAL

The Hamburg American liner freighter "Hamburg" from Hamburg to Philadelphia, which was delayed in the harbor this morning, is expected to leave for Philadelphia this afternoon.

The other officers are men whose names have been mentioned in connection with the personal management of the company. The location and management, as well as the previous history of development of these properties, speak a language as plain as the future of these other properties of the Bingham Camp of which I have spoken.

The Utah Consolidated was developed by Samuel Newhouse. Its stock is listed upon the Boston Stock Exchange at $1.50 per share, with a par value of $5 per share.

The Boston Consolidated Copper Company was developed by Samuel Newhouse. Its stock, of a par value of $4.80 (it is a British corporation, capitalized at $1), is traded in on the Boston Curb, where it is selling at 16 1/2.

The Utah Copper Company received its present high state of development under the personal management of D. C. Jackling. Its stock, of a par value of $10, is selling at 25, with a par value of $10, where it is selling at 27 1/2.

It is to be noted that the same men developed these properties who are now developing the Bingham Central Standard Company's holdings. It is to be further noted that their enterprises, which are recognized as conservative and well-managed, are listed upon the great stock exchanges.

The 100,000 shares which I am authorized to offer for public subscription are being sold to raise funds for the further development of the properties, to place them on a shipping basis. As soon as this allotment of stock has been distributed, the stock will be listed upon the Boston Curb, where I believe it will sell at $2 within 30 days.

I do not know of any opportunity for the investment of a sum of money that is idle or, at best, earning a low rate of interest, with a better prospect of a substantial increase in value in a short time. Therefore, I respectfully suggest that you will do well to take advantage of this offer, which will be withdrawn as soon as 100,000 shares have been subscribed.

Bingham Central Standard stock is, I believe, worth par, $5 per share, for a long pull. I believe it will sell at $2 within a month after it is listed and traded in upon the Boston Curb.

Address all communications to me personally and make all remittances payable to my order.
